THE NEWS

Tahiti, Visit Papeete by Segway!

Shiny and new! Segways have finally arrived in Polynesia!

We have tested them for you: New, comfortable, stable and easy to use, they will help you explore the city of Papeete in a playful, friendly way!

Three routes are proposed, with each tour always including a short learning phase for the safe use of these new robotic mobility platforms.

- Papeete Evasion 1h30

Departing from Place Toata, well known for its open-air amphitheater, you will cross the quaint Papeete waterfront park, and then cruise along the new Marina where beautiful yachts and sailboats from around the world are moored. Throughout the journey, your guide will make various stops significant to the history of the city to add an educational touch to your ride.

- Papeete Discovery 2h30

More complete, this tour offers a combination the "Papeete Evasion" route and a discovery of the heart of the city, its shops, its market and its institutions. Since Segways are considered pedestrians, the exploration is safely undertaken by the sidewalks of the city.

- Papeete by Night 1h30

With friends or as a couple, wander at dusk along the Marina illuminated by a beautiful turquoise blue, until the famous place Vaïete and its food trucks (mobile restaurants) and why not pick out the one where you want to have a good dinner after the tour!

FOCUS ON

The 2016 Civil Wedding Packages are available!

You are a foreign citizen? Straight or gay? This is it... after a few months or even years of reflection for some, your decision is made and you're ready to take the leap, you are getting MARRIED! But while the majority of couples choose their place of residence or city of origin for the civil ceremony; as for you, you will have chosen an exotic destination far less conventional... French Polynesia.

Since 2010, our services assist you in preparing your marriage file and in all local administrative procedures. They coordinate the event on site, so that everything runs perfectly on your big day.

Three basic packages are offered on Tahiti, Moorea, and Bora Bora, with two options in 2016 on the latter island. In addition to having the paperwork handled before you arrive in French Polynesia, each package includes a wedding coordinator, private transfers between your hotel and the city hall, bouquet & boutonniere for bride and groom, the two required witnesses if you come unaccompanied, as well as additional service in order to make this day a real special one...

A la carte options can also be added to these packages, such as a makeup artist, hairdresser, photographer, videographer...

New to Bora Bora in 2016, we offer the choice of private transfers by open boat with our Classic package or by covered boat with our Deluxe package. This last option will be appreciated by brides with a sophisticated hairstyle or an Haute Couture dress.

Until today, although the majority of requests are still for Bora Bora, after 5 years spent organizing civil weddings, our experience leads us to recommend a wedding in 2 stages: Papeete city hall on Tahiti, the most beautiful of our islands, for your civil ceremony, followed by, during your stay in our islands, for the folklore and the cultural aspect, a traditional Polynesian ceremony at your hotel or on a private motu for an unforgettable performance...

Thus on Moorea, the Maiiau Beach Garden islet invites you to Nature: In the morning, with a private exploration by canoe of the wonders of the lagoon of Moorea, for full day including an amazing, delicious lunch featuring fresh products from the sea (lobster, coconut crab ...) or at sunset, a veritable explosion of celestial colors heralding a nice, romantic night ... Each service is a chance for discovery, exchanges, and romance. The Polynesian priest will bless your union with the sounds of traditional instruments and songs, while the colorful costumes of the dancers will blend together to the Maohi rhythms.

Another outstanding option for an exceptional wedding... Why not let yourself be tempted by the Ultimate ceremony: from your hotel on Bora Bora or Tahaa, climb aboard a helicopter and seal your union in a unique place, without any artifice, in colors of a purity that only nature can provide: Tupai, one of 5 atolls in the world shaped like a heart. Red carpet when you get off the helicopter, exchange your vows in privacy on a sandy beach with your only witnesses the turquoise lagoon and the shade of coconut trees...

From the simplest to the most elaborate ceremony, let us guide you... Go on, pick a date and we will do the rest!
